

Summer Lectures

The following is the programme at the Nahum Goldmann Summer Institute at Carmel College Sunday August 16th through Monday August 31st 1987.

Sunday 16
p.m. Registration
8 p.m. Opening session

Monday 17
a.m. Rabbi Adin Steinsaltz: "The Living Talmud"

Tuesday 18
a.m. Dr Gerhard M. Riegner: "Jews and Human Rights"

Wednesday 19
a.m. Prof. Eliezer Schweid: "Contemporary Jewish Thought from A'had Haam to Rav Kook"

Thursday 20
a.m. Rabbi A. Steinsaltz: "The living Talmud"

Friday 21
a.m. Prof. Arthur Hertzberg: "The' Zionist Idea: some reflections"

Saturday 22
p.m. Prof. Arnold Eisen: "Contemporary issues in Israel society"

Sunday 23
a.m. General discussion around that topic

Monday 24
a.m. Dr G.M. Riegner: "The shoah and its aftermath in Europe"

p.m. Rabbi A. Steinsaltz: "The Living Talmud"

Tuesday 25
a.m. Prof. E. Schweid: "Contemporary Jewish Thought"

Wednesday 26
a.m. Dr Riegner: "Judaism and interreligious dialogue in the last decades"

p.m. Prof. A. Hertzberg: "The current profile of America Jewry"

Thursday 27
a.m. Prof. E. Schweid: "Contemporary Jewish Thought"

Friday 28
a.m. Prof. A. Herzberg: "Facing Modernity"

Saturday 29
p.m. Prof. Saul Friedlander: "Issues on contemporary Jewish History and Memory"

Sunday 30

Monday 31
a.m. General assessment of the course by participants and suggestions for the future.